

Dant Advocacy Joins Nationwide Public Affairs Network

October 17, 2018, Indianapolis – Dant Advocacy today announced that it has joined Nextlaw Public Affairs Network. The global network includes 60 public affairs and public relations firms spanning 100 countries. In addition to connecting leading public affairs firms with one another, the platform will also connect over 27,000 lawyers across 550 law firms that are members of the Nextlaw Referral Network. The Public Affairs Network is designed to become the largest, most versatile network of its kind in the world. The network is sponsored by Dentons, the largest law firm in the world.

Dant Advocacy's founder Miriam Dant said, "We're excited to join this network, which will help us provide clients with government affairs and legal resources around the world. When we contemplate today's government affairs arena, we see an enormous opportunity to join a fully integrated platform, and we look forward to helping our clients solve real-world problems."

This revolutionary new public affairs platform will leverage the technology designed and built in support of the world's largest legal referral network, Nextlaw Referral Network; launched in October 2016, the network now consists of over 550 law firms in more than 200 countries with over 27,000 lawyers.

About Dant Advocacy - Dant Advocacy has been representing clients ranging from multi-national corporations to homegrown Indiana businesses and associations since 2006. The firm's founder was named Lawyer of the Year for Indianapolis in the area of Government Relations in 2016 and 2018. The firm's government affairs professionals have held senior positions for statewide elected officials, legislative leaders, private sector lobbying firms, and associations.

About Nextlaw Public Affairs Network - Nextlaw Public Affairs Network is a first-of-its-kind platform designed to connect and support public affairs and public relations firms from around the world. The network currently includes 60 companies spanning 100 countries and it is growing every day. The technology platform is dedicated to helping global clients easily and efficiently work with public affairs firms – all of which have a deep familiarity and understanding of governmental, business, and economic cultures in their communities and regions worldwide. www.nextlawpublicaffairs.com

About Nextlaw Referral Network - Nextlaw Referral Network is the broadest legal referral network in the world. The platform includes over 550 law firms in more than 200 countries and includes over 27,000 lawyers. The network recently won the "International Law Firm Innovation" award at the Legal Week Innovation Awards. The network and its sophisticated technology make it easy for high-quality law firms of any size to work closely together to ensure that clients can pinpoint the precise right lawyer for the right matter in any practice and sector, anywhere in the world.